God's Freedom Fighters in Nicaragua

December 2, 2011

Dear Pastor and Church,

I know we say it every year, but once again it seems that time has “flown by” during the last eleven months. Yet every day brings new blessings and challenges to life on the mission field. Through it all God has been faithful to keep us healthy, active and happy to be able to minister to the people of Nicaragua.

This past year has brought us several challenges but many more blessings. However, like many of you we are constantly looking for more capable workers. One of our men recently told me, “Pastor, we need to pray for more workers to go into the harvest”. We are thankful for the faithful workers that we already have but they are currently pushed to the limit with their various ministries. We are now in the training stage; teaching them to instruct and train others who will also become willing and capable workers. What a thrill it will be when we begin to see the works grow by multiplication and not just by addition. We rejoice in what God has already done here and expect this coming year to be the greatest yet. Unfortunately, as time goes by and the work progresses it seems our energy level decreases. Sometimes the words of the Lord Jesus, “the spirit is willing but the flesh is weak” takes on a new meaning for us. Please pray that God will continue to give us strength and stamina to keep up with the increase.

Your faithfulness and care of us continues to give us the strength and encouragement to continue laboring so that the harvest will be gathered and that we may all rejoice together. Especially during this season of giving and receiving we remember the unspeakable gift of salvation that God has extended to us. Not just in this season, but in all seasons we must remember that Jesus is the reason we labor, pray and give. His work is not yet accomplished, therefore “He is the reason for the season” of sowing seed and reaping souls in the entire world.

Our prayer for you all is that this Christmas season will be one of rejoicing and contentment as you spend time with family and friends. From all of us here in Nicaragua we wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year.
